PROJECT NAME	AI-NUTRITION ANALYZER FOR FITNESS ENTHUSIASTS
MAXIMUM MARKS	4 MARKS

The Person who seeks to have a personal fitness guide based on nutrition analyzer	The limitations to buy/use our product is it is able to detect only selected food	The solution is to bring a tension free and reminding software to give a diet plan and also to remind to help them to follow it
We can understand the cause of the problem by getting offline reviews from user and rectify it	Our app makes the user to feel realistic designs that what they seek for is there and they are in a right place	We can always resemble this model based on existing system which provide similar technique and also we can support the existing behavior by considering them and adding into our working system
We are going to be different than other competitor is we can provide our service in devices that can be easily accessed	We are there where our customers are by being where they look and making them find us in some website and social media	Having a healthy and fit human life is the strongest message that we can give to the users
